INTERNATIONAL Day of Peace

Celebrate a weekend of peace in the Coral Springs community

September 18 to 20, 2009

The City of Coral Springs Multi-Cultural Advisory Committee and One Planet United are joining forces again to celebrate the International Day of Peace with a weekend of activities that will start on Friday, September 18, and end on Sunday, September 20. Admission is free for all events.

International Peace Garden Celebration • Friday, September 18

7:45 a.m. • International Peace Garden at the Center for the Arts • 2855 Coral Springs Drive

An informal community gathering, including City officials, residents and children from our local schools, to celebrate peace with music, art, and the placement of Pinwheels for Peace.

A Silent Walk for Peace • Saturday, September 19

7 a.m. • International Peace Garden at the Center for the Arts • 2855 Coral Springs Drive

A twenty-minute silent walk within the garden to meditate on peace and appreciate the serenity of the morning.

Drum Circle for Peace • Saturday, September 19

6 p.m. • International Peace Garden at the Center for the Arts • 2855 Coral Springs Drive

Join the drum circle for peace, bringing people of all ages, races, religions together to unite in a spirit of unity through the connection of the heartbeat of humanity. Bring drums, tambourines, shakers, cowbells or anything that can drum, rattle or shake – such as empty five-gallon cooler water jugs, pots or lids with wood spoons, coffee cans, metal buckets, or jars filled with dry beans. Bring something to sit on.

A Dialogue in Diversity: Pathways to Peace • Sunday, September 20

2:30 p.m. • NW Regional Library • 3151 University Drive

A relaxed conversation about peace in a talk show format.

Praying for Peace • Sunday, September 20

7 p.m. • Royal Palm Christian Church • 9600 Royal Palm Boulevard
(on the South side of Royal Palm Boulevard, just West of University Drive)

The Weekend of Peace will close with an ecumenical gathering of people of all faiths to reflect upon and pray for peace.
